Girls' Soccer

DANI GAVILANEZ – Dani is the daughter of Marc & Kami Gavilanez.

Dani has been a member of the Norwell Girls Soccer program for four years and will play tennis for the fourth season next Spring. Dani has been actively involved with the CORE leadership team of Campus Life and the student leadership team at Hope Missionary Church. She is a member of National Honor Society and serves the community as a member of the Youth as Resources group.

Some of Dani's favorite team memories include spending Friday's after school with the Bible study gals, inadvertently running into the goalpost during the DeKalb game last year, doing crazy stunts with the goalkeepers, and getting closer to her teammates during car rides, water balloon fights and practices. Dani's future goals include attending an undecided college to pursue an undecided major. She would like to become a LEGO master builder, but if that doesn't work out she will settle for a career in aviation, math or science. God has been her constant the past four years and has taught her to "rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, (and) be constant in prayer." (Romans 12:12) She's thankful for her faithful family fan club, coaching staff, and the teammates she's had the privilege to play with. To them, she'd like to say, "Toodaloo buckaroos!"

TORII JACKSON – Torii is the daughter of Shawna Butler.

Torii has been a member of the Norwell Girls Soccer program for three years. She has been a member of show choir for four years.

Torii's favorite soccer team memory is going out to breakfast with the team after practice. Torii's future plans include attending college with the plan of becoming a Family Law Attorney and Criminal Lawyer. She would like to thank her coaches, grandfather and mother for being her motivation.
